

PARKLANE CAPITAL

We are an M&A and corporate finance consultancy focusing on the internet, media and technology industries. We advise national and international founders, investors and strategists on purchases and sales, as well as on financing of growth companies. To strengthen our team, we are looking to hire an intern for the duration of at least two months starting immediately.

Intern (m/f/d) in the M&A Industry Media, Internet and Technology Sector

At Parklane Capital you are immediately involved in exciting projects. You will work independently on challenging and varied tasks in direct cooperation with our directors and the management level of our clients.

We offer:

- Challenging M&A projects for growth companies
- Young team with a start-up spirit
- Working in small teams in direct collaboration with directors and clients
- Insight into all M&A projects
- Great office in the heart of Hamburg with a view of the Alster

Your tasks:

- Support in the creation of documents for clients (Teaser, business plan, company presentations, etc.)
- Preparation and analysis of financial data and company valuations
- Development of pitch and marketing presentations for potential clients
- Creation of transaction, company, market and competition analyses

Your profile:

- Student in economics or comparable subjects with excellent academic performance
- First practical experience
- Pronounced analytical and conceptual skills
- High level of commitment and motivation
- Business fluent in German and English
- High affinity for the internet sector and innovation / technology

If you are interested, please send us your complete application documents (cover letter, curriculum vitae and certificates) by email to Ms. Derya Torun (dt@parklane-capital.de).
